

CHILEAN MINERS QUIT TO PROTEST ARRESTS

SANTIAGO, Chile, Nov. 17.—The coal shortage in Chile has become more acute as the result of new arrests at the mines of Lota and Coronel. The miners have struck in protest against the detention of various workers of alleged extremist tendencies, according to advices to the minister of the interior.

The same advices report an encounter between troops and workers in which several were wounded on both sides.

$18,000 STOLEN MONEY
FOUND IN TIRE OF CAR

HENDERSON, N. C., Nov. 17.—L. V. Graves, postoffice clerk, formerly of Omaha, Neb., who was arrested charged with theft of registered packages from the postoffice in this city, was said by postoffice inspectors yesterday to have had $18,000 concealed in an extra tire on his automobile when taken into custody.

The inspectors said they found $17,000 in cash and a $1,000 Liberty bond in the tire.

SOCIETY SEES PREMIERE OF ASHFORD PLAY

"A L. Washington" would seem to have read Daisy Ashford's "Young Visitors" and to have been anxious to see it in play form. For "all Washington" was at the Shubert-Garrick Theater last evening to see the first performance. Before the performance began one heard on all sides, "I don't see how it can be made into a play." But after seeing Mr. Saltsens and Ethel Montecue and Bernard Clark in the flesh the general comment was "Didn't they make a clever play out of it?"

The house was crowded with notable and there were numerous interesting box parties. The Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Daniels had guests with them, their party including Mrs. Gordon Woodbury and Miss Gordon Woodbury, wife and daughter of the Assistant Secretary of the Navy; Commander Warren and John Wilbur Jenkins; Robert L. Craigie, secretary of the British embassy and Mrs. Craigie were hosts to several guests; and Mrs. Delos Blodgett had in her box Mrs. Charles Graves Matthews, Mrs. Davis Gaillard and Mrs. James F. Walsh.

Mr. and Mrs. Burwell Cutler had guests with them. Frederick E. Chapin and his sister, Miss Marcia Chapin, had several young people with them and in the adjoining box were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer and Frederick Holtzman, formerly of Washington, but now of New York and his bride.

TILLERS ENTERTAIN. Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Tiller and Mr. and Mrs. John W. Thompson entertained parties of guests. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, who had twenty-two young people with them, had a buffet supper afterward at their home in Sheridan circle. In their party were Lieut. Comdr. and Mrs. Robert Hinkley, Mr. and Mrs.

MRS. WILSON, wife of the secretary of the Bolivian legation, and one of the charming recent additions to the diplomatic set.

Morrill Chamberlain, Lieut. Comdr. and Mrs. William Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. John Smallwood, Major and Mrs. Allen M. Burdett, Miss Dorothy Deche, Miss Jamie Herron, Miss Adelaide Pierce, Mrs. Walsh, Miss Brown, Ralph Graves, Theodore Noyes, Delos Smith, Mr. Mohler and Dr. Adam Kemble.

Mr. and Mrs. Tiller also gave a party after the play, taking their guests to their charming old-fashioned home in Mount Pleasant street for a supper party and dance. There were twenty-four present.

Mrs. George Barnett was in the audience, accompanied by her tall young son, Capt. Basil Gordon, and among others noted were Mrs. Eveleth Whiting, Mrs. Jack Finer, Mrs. Katherine Colby, the Brazilian ambassador, Dr. Augusto Cochran de Alencar, Dr. Jacobo Varela, minister of Uruguay, and Mme. Varela; Rear Admiral and Mme. Irizar, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Delano Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Wells, Victor de Tazanovs Pinto, of Peru, who is visiting the ambassador of Argentina; Robert Wood Bliss, formerly charge d'affaires of the United States embassy in Argentina; Col. Alfred T. Smith, formerly military attaché at Buenos Aires, and Mrs. Smith; Luis A. Gurgel do Amaral, secretary of the Brazilian embassy, and Mme. Gurgel do Amaral; Dr. Leo S. Rowe, director general of the Pan-American Union; Col. Juan Estaban Vacarezco, military attaché of the Argentine embassy, and Felipe A. Espil, secretary of the Argentine embassy.

MRS. WILSON'S BOX PARTY. Mrs. Wilson, who had a box party at the National Theater yesterday afternoon for the Philadelphia Orchestra concert, had with her Mrs. William H. Bolling, Miss Bertha Bolling, John Randolph Bolling, and Rear Admiral J. M. Helm.

The Vice President and Mrs. Marshall, who are expected back in Washington early in December, will be guests of honor at a dinner which Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh will give on December 11.

DIPLOMATIC DINNER.

Dr. Tomas A. LeBreton, ambassador to Argentina, gave a dinner at the embassy last night in compliment to the Secretary of State and Mrs. Colby. In the absence of the ambassador, Mme. LeBreton, who has not yet returned from Europe, Mme. Irizar, wife of Rear Admiral Julian Irizar, naval attaché of the embassy, filled the role of hostess. The guests were Secretary and Mrs. Colby and Miss Katherine Colby, the Brazilian ambassador, Dr. Augusto Cochran de Alencar, Dr. Jacobo Varela, minister of Uruguay, and Mme. Varela; Rear Admiral and Mme. Irizar, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Delano Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Wells, Victor de Tazanovs Pinto, of Peru, who is visiting the ambassador of Argentina; Robert Wood Bliss, formerly charge d'affaires of the United States embassy in Argentina; Col. Alfred T. Smith, formerly military attaché at Buenos Aires, and Mrs. Smith; Luis A. Gurgel do Amaral, secretary of the Brazilian embassy, and Mme. Gurgel do Amaral; Dr. Leo S. Rowe, director general of the Pan-American Union; Col. Juan Estaban Vacarezco, military attaché of the Argentine embassy, and Felipe A. Espil, secretary of the Argentine embassy.

The dinner was followed by a small informal dance, to which a number of additional guests were asked.

Tonight Secretary and Mrs. Colby will be guests of the Undersecretary of State and Mrs. Norman H. Davis, who have asked an interesting company to meet them at dinner.

HOUSTON GIVE DINNER.

The Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Houston will give a dinner to-night in honor of the British Ambassador and Lady Goddard and will have among their guests John V. McCord, of New York, who is with them for a brief visit. Mr. Breckinridge has been at Hot Springs, Va., with Secretary Houston and returned with him today.

Mrs. Houston will be at home this afternoon, and Mrs. James M. Moyle, wife of one of the assistant secretaries of the Treasury, will preside at the tea table.

Mrs. Meredith, wife of the Secretary of Agriculture will receive this afternoon for the first time this season. She will be at home quite informally and will not have any one to assist her.

The Ambassador of Chile and Mme. de Mathieu left yesterday for a week's visit to New York.

The Polish Minister and Princess Lubomirski will give a dinner at the embassy tonight.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING. Mrs. Lily Lykes Rowe, daughter of Mrs. Lily L. Lykes, of Birmingham, Ala., will be married this afternoon to Nelson Shepard, the ceremony taking place at 4 o'clock at the home of Mr. Shepard's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Seth Shepard, Jr., 3744 Huntington street, Chevy Chase.

It will be a simple wedding, with only a small company of guests present. The bride, who will be unattended, will be given in marriage by Seth Shepard, Jr. She will wear a smart navy blue tricot frock, with touches of henna on the collar and cuffs, and the henna color note will be repeated in her becoming small hat. Her bouquet will be of white roses and lilies of the valley. The Episcopal service will be used, with double-ring ceremony.

After a short wedding trip Mr. Shepard and his bride will make their home at 1725 Kenyon street. His sister, Mrs. John Paison, who was formerly Miss Caroline Shepard, of Washington, has come on from her home in Brooklyn to attend the wedding. She will be here for a few days and is dividing her time between the home of Mr. and Mrs. Shepard and of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Gould Lincoln.

Mr. Shepard is the son of the late Justice Seth Shepard, who was Chief Justice of the United States Court of Appeals for many years. He is at present a member of the editorial staff of The Washington Times and his bride has also followed newspaper work as a profession. She is a charming and accomplished young woman and has made many friends during the short time she has been living in Washington.

Prince and Princess Michael Galgani, of the Russian embassy, have moved from Stoneleigh Court to 1725 Corcoran street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Sothorn are staying at the Shoreham. They are contemplating leasing a home here for the winter.

DANCE AT MAISON DUPONT.

The Tuesday Evening Supper Dances at the Maison Dupont, which bid fair to rival in importance the once famous Bachelor's Cotillions, were successfully launched last evening. The dances are given by 100 of the most prominent young men in society and their guests last night numbered about 100 more.

The guests were received last night (Continued on Page Twenty.)

Curling Hair This Way
Preserves Its Beauty

That dull, dead appearance of the hair no longer troubles the woman who has adopted the silmerine method of keeping her tresses in curl. The result is very different from that produced by the drying, devastating waving iron. The hair appears more naturally wavy and curly, and the application is really beneficial to the life and growth of the hair.

Any druggist, of course, can supply the liquid silmerine. A small quantity should be put on just before doing up the hair, using for the purpose a clean tooth brush, drawing this down the full length of the hair from root to tip. The effect is delightfully surprising, and there is no discoloration, no stickiness, greasiness, nor any other unpleasant accompaniment. The hair is quite manageable, no matter how it is fashioned.

Fruit Desserts

Rich in real fruit, sealed in glass

Thanksgiving serve a Jiffy-Jell dessert. Get it now, and let us send you free some dainty way of serving.

Jiffy-Jell is the new grade quick gelatin dessert. Its fruit flavors are rich and real.

We crush the fruit, condense the juice and seal it in a bottle. So you get real fruit and much of it, not a mere fruit taste.

Eight fruits thus come to you in Jiffy-Jell desserts. Each package has a bottle of a rich fruit essence. It gives to these supreme desserts a multiplied delight.

Jiffy-Jell comes ready-sweetened. It comes acidulated with lemon or grape acid. Simply add boiling water, as directed on package, then the flavor from the bottle, and let cool.

A package serves six in mold form, or 12 if you whip the jell—all for 15 cents. The fruit alone would usually cost more.

Get several flavors of this new-type dainty. Millions now enjoy it. Then send us the trade-marks for dainty ways of serving. Do this now, so your gift may reach you for Thanksgiving dinner.

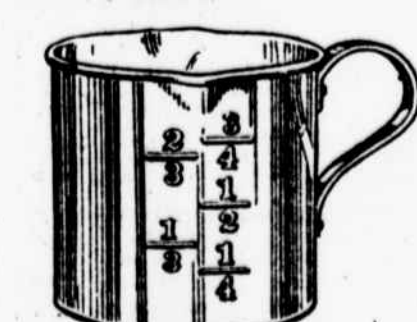

Lime-fruit flavor makes a tart green salad jell. Mint flavor makes a mint jell to serve with meats.
